

Francesco Carelli , FD, MD, MSc

Francesco Carelli founded the Italian Academy of Family Physicians. Professor at University of Milan and Rome for undergraduate students and specializing doctors. National Representative in EURACT Council, Director of Communications, BME Committee Chair, Member Executive Board. He is involved since many years in all EURACT Councils and activities, EGPRN meetings and WONCA Congresses. Involved in editing all EURACT Documents, he is International Editor for London Journal of Primary Care (RCGP) and International Board for British Journal of General Practice, Advisory Board for European Journal of General Practice. Since many years, scientific journalist (national council) with dossiers and books and many publications (ResearchGate top score) on educational and national and international health politic and management arguments and researches.